

MIXED UP.

Everything of Local Interest To be Found That is of Interest.

MONDAY.

Prosecuting Attorney Hines and John A. Snider are in the city. Mr. Hines is here to prosecute a man who has a plurality of wives and Mr. Snider is here to convince a Justice of the Peace that a man who can take care of more than one wife is a hero.

There will be an adjourned term of the County Court on the 5th of March. Don't forget if you use Putnam Fadeless Dyes you don't have to send for a package for wool and one for cotton. Each package colors all fibers. Sold by W. H. Coerver. It

We understand that Robert G. Ranney will probably be the Democratic candidate for Judge of the Common Pleas Court. Mr. Ranney is a good lawyer and an honorable gentleman.

Congressman Vandiver went down to Benton today to be present at the Democratic county convention. Mr. Vandiver says he is solid in Scott county. He will go from Benton to New Madrid county, and after speaking a few days in that county will return to Washington.

Stay that barking by using Ballard's Horehound Syrup. It arrests the cough, allays irritation of the throat, and relieves oppression of the lungs in a day. It is safe and pleasant to take, and never disappoints. 50 cents. L. Ben Miller.

W. B. Schaefer of Jackson is here attending a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Fair Association.

Aunt Harriet McClauley (colored) died at her home in this city, February 18th, 1900, aged about ninety years. Aunt Harriet was a midwife and well known to all our old citizens. She was a good woman.

Small precautions often prevent great mischiefs. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are very small pills in size, but are most effective in preventing the most serious forms of liver and stomach troubles. They cure constipation and headache and regulate the bowels. Wm. H. Coerver.

The petition of the Railroad Company asking permission to build up town and also permission to build a depot building in front of the River-view Hotel was laid over till the next meeting of the Council.

Hon. Louis Houck will return home from Texas this week.

A special agent of the Hanover Insurance Company has been in the city a few days.

Are you lacking in strength and energy. Are you nervous, despondent, irritable, bilious, constipated and generally run down in health. If so, your liver is torpid, and a few doses of Herbine will cure you. Herbine has no equal as a health restorer. L. Ben Miller.

The ferry boat Cape City is now doing duty at Caruthersville.

Seems to us that the City Council is dillydallying a long time with that railroad petition. The railroad people want to get up town; the people of the town want the depot up town and it is the business of the Council to work for the interest of the town.

Dr. Franklin of Dutchtown is in the city. The Doctor says he has all the business he can attend to now.

Uriah Jones, Ezekian Brown and John Peter Smith will testify to the wonderful curative properties of Dr. Simmons' Cough Syrup. Sample bottles free. Satisfaction or money refunded. For sale by all druggists.

Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, Mother of Dink Taylor, died at the residence of Mrs. E. L. Hobbs, in the Bend, three miles north of Cape Girardeau, at 2 a. m., Sunday, February 18. Funeral at Lorimer cemetery, Tuesday at 1 p. m.

Robert Tirmenstein of Jackson is in town today. Mr. Tirmenstein has sold his interest in the Woods-Snyder store at Jackson and is now out of business.

Moments are useless if trifled away and they are dangerously wasted if consumed by delay in cases where One Minute Cough Cure would bring immediate relief. W. H. Coerver.

Running sores, indolent ulcers and similar troubles, even though of many years' standing, may be cured by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It soothes, strengthens and heals. It is the great pile cure. W. H. Coerver.

TUESDAY.

Dr. Simmons' Sarsaparilla effectually aids weak, impaired and debilitated organs of both sexes. Its action is quick and lasting. Fifty cents and 50 doses.

The ferryboat City of Warsaw is making trips across the river in spite of the ice.

Fritz Theuerkauf, of St. Louis, is in the city visiting his sister, Mrs. Ed Regenhardt.

Evil after effects never follow the use of Dr. Bell's Peppermint Chil Tonic. It is a pleasant liver laxative. It makes rich, red blood. It makes stout, sound bone. It makes flesh. It makes rosy cheeks. All of this cures chills so they stay cured. Dealers guarantee it.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, a big stenographer. Mr. Andrews is still holding his job with the S. M. & A.

The firm of Flentge, Johnston & Co. has dissolved partnership. Mr. Ed. Johnston retiring from the business.

If you are bilious, try Dr. Sawyer Little Wide Awake Pills, you will find them just what you want. Try sample. They do not gripe. Sold at M. Maple Willson's drug store.

Died, in this city, February 20th 1900, Maude Scivally, aged 21 years, 11 months and 6 days. Miss Scivally was an accomplished young lady and her death has cast a shadow of sorrow over a large circle of friends. To her bereaved parents the DEMOCRAT extends sympathy.

The man who was taken for Ellis Glenn in Hot Springs the other day was in this city for a month or two. He is a palm reader and is a sure enough man.

Old fashions in dress may be revived, but no old-fashioned medicine can replace Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by L. Ben Miller.

We were not aware that we had writers of fiction in this city until we were shown some samples of the writing to-day.

The river is still full of floating ice and there is no prospect of an early resumption of river navigation.

Chatham's Chill Tonic is peculiarly adapted to persons in enfeebled health and invalids. It assists digestion and is a perfect strengthener and restorer. Satisfaction or money refunded. Put up in both tasteless and bitter styles. 50-cent-size.

John Wilson bid in the property that was sold at trustee's sale to-day at the court house.

John A. Snider got his man with two wives out on a two hundred dollar bond. The man is a Democrat of course.

KIDNEY DISEASES are the most fatal of all diseases. Foley's Kidney Cure is a guaranteed remedy or money refunded.

At an early date we will furnish the readers of the DEMOCRAT with some rare and racy reading consisting of letters from a great number of young bloods in this city to a fair and burlesque widow. We ask the indulgence of our readers for a few days in order to give us time to make a proper compilation. No favors will be shown. All is fair in love and war. Shot-gun intimidation will not go.

Hon. Louis Houck will return home on the 28th.

The Board of Directors fixed the time of holding the next Fair yesterday. The Fair will begin October 9th and last five days.

The little folks had a masque ball at Morrison's Hall last night and we understand they had a gay old time.

The "Bicyclist's Best Friend" is a familiar name for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, always ready for emergencies. While a specific for piles, it also instantly relieves and cures cuts, bruises, salt rheum, eczema and all affections of the skin. It never fails. Wm. H. Coerver.

WEDNESDAY

What is it? A cure for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, and all Bronchial Affections of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. 50 doses for 50 cents. Money refunded if it fails to give satisfaction; we mean Dr. Simmons' Cough Syrup. For sale by all druggists.

Our contractors and builders expect to be kept busy this year. They are figuring on several big buildings now.

The alley between the bank building and the DEMOCRAT office is now known as "Lover's Lane."

Judge Robert L. Wilson went down to Allenville this morning on legal business.

Ballard's Snow Liniment. There is no pain it will not relieve, no swelling it will not subdue, no wound it will not heal, it will cure frost bites, chilblains, and corns. 25 and 50 cents. L. Ben Miller.

Seems to us that the Street Commissioner, under the orders of the Street and Wharf Committee of the City Council might give us a few street crossings. The mud is on an average of six inches deep on all street crossings.

The "boys" are nearly all looking awful innocent to-day, but they will be watching for each issue of the DEMOCRAT for several days. Just have a little patience, gentlemen, you will see what you are looking for before we have another new moon in February.

They are putting in two large new steam boilers at the brewery. This year the brewery will be prepared to turn out fifteen tons of ice per day.

The country doctors are having all the practice they can attend to. Some of them are in the saddle day and night.

Died, at his home, five miles north of this city, February 21st, 1900, Charles Brinkmann, aged about twenty-five years.

Dr. Stager is in the city to-day attending a meeting of the Medical Board of Pension Examiners.

Our Fair will be held this year a week earlier than usual and on new grounds. We predict the biggest fair in the history of Cape Girardeau fairs.

R. E. Gannon was called by wire to New York last Monday to the bedside of his mother. His mother died before he reached her.

There will be a regular stampede for the office of Assessor this year. We have heard of more than a dozen prospective candidates already and all are not heard from yet.

Don't forget if you use Putnam Fadeless Dyes you don't have to send for a package for wool and one for cotton. Each package colors all fibers. Sold by W. H. Coerver. It

FRIDAY.

There was a large attendance at the mask ball at the Masonic Hall last night and the ball was enjoyed by all.

The candidates for office and the blue birds will arrive at about the same time this year. The blue birds will come as nesters and the candidates will come to feather their old nests.

They are going to have a poultry house in Jackson.

Certainly you don't want to suffer with dyspepsia, constipation, sick headache, sallow skin and loss of appetite. You have never tried DeWitt's Little Early Risers for these complaints or you would have been cured. They are small pills but great regulators. Wm. H. Coerver.

The young people had a dance at the St. Charles Hotel last night and of course they had a pleasant time.

The cold ways-flag is fluttering in the breeze again today.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Maul, February 22nd, a fine big girl. Pete is happy of course and proud of the fact that his daughter was born on Washington's birth day.

Col. G. C. Thilenius was called to St. Louis by wire today on account of the death of his sister, Mrs. Meister, who died Thursday. Mrs. Meister was sixty-nine years of age.
